

VOLUNTEER POSITION

Role: Farsi speaker for interpretation

CONTEXT

Telmi Rights is a comprehensive solution to address the refugee crisis by improving tools available for all parties: asylum seekers, interpreters, advisers and institutions. It allows to speed up the asylum process with clear cases, gives free access to reliable information and provides a continuous process of advisory.

MISSION & RESPONSABILITIES

Among our values is a desire for clear communication. Interpreters are key to the success of Telmi's work, as they enable the advisors to communicate clearly and effectively with applicants through Telmi's platform. It is why we are looking for a Farsi speaker to volunteer as an interpreter between the asylum seeker and the adviser.

The role of the interpreter, essentially, is to represent the asylum-seeker's words accurately. When providing interpretation, it is important to first make clear to all parties involved what your role is in the conversation. Start by introducing yourself as the volunteer interpreter who will facilitate the dialogue and interpret all that is said accurately and impartially.

Here is a detailed guide with further information regarding the mission and responsibilities of an interpreter and translator: <https://www.telmirights.com/interpreter>

PROFILE REQUIRED

- Fluent Farsi speaker
- Comprehensive understanding of the cultural framework surrounding the Farsi language
- Excellent communication skills

To apply, please contact telmirights@gmail.com

For more information, please visit our website: <http://www.telmirights.com>